Section 2: Applicant details

Please ensure ALL applicant details are provided including all current and previous names, telephone contact numbers, drivers licence details etc. If there is insufficient room, please attach a separate sheet, ensuring that it is signed and dated.

Section 3: Employer/Organisation details

This section relates to AFP account holders only and should not be used unless previously advised.

Section 4: Mailing Address of Police Certificate

The National Police Certificate will be mailed to the organisation listed at Section 3.

Section 5: Fingerprint Checks are only required where there is a legislative requirement for such a check to be conducted. The employer or organisation requiring the NPC will advise you if this is necessary.

These fingerprints must be included with pages 1 and 2 of this form at the time of submission.

An additional cost and processing time is associated with this service. Details are available on the AFP website or use the link – http://www.afp.gov.au/business/national_police_checks.html

Fingerprints can be taken by your local police jurisdiction or the AFP. Where fingerprints are taken by the AFP and the AFP charges for this service a receipt must be obtained and supplied to Criminal Records with this application.

Section 6: Consent

This section must be signed by the applicant. If a parent/guardian has signed in the consent section they consent to the AFP conducting a NPC on their son/daughter/ward.

Spent Convictions Legislation

The aim of spent convictions legislation is to prevent discrimination on the basis of certain previous convictions. Spent convictions legislation limits the use and disclosure of older, less serious convictions and findings of guilt.

There are some offences excluded from being spent where the check is required for certain purposes as indicated in the table above – these offences will be released regardless of how old they are.

Where a record exists within an Australian police jurisdiction, relevant spent conviction legislation/policies governing the release of that information for that jurisdiction will be applied. As a result certain convictions will not be released provided this is in accordance with the relevant legislation/policies.

For Commonwealth records the AFP applies the provisions within Part VIIC of the Crimes Act 1914 and for ACT records provisions within the ACT Spent Convictions Act 2000 are applicable. If further information or clarification is required please contact the individual jurisdiction where the record is held.

Provision of False or Misleading Information

You are asked to certify that the personal information you have provided on this form is correct. Where your check is for employment related purposes and the result is to be provided to your employer or other organisation, discovery of any false or misleading information may be reported by the AFP and may impact on the decision being undertaken by the employer or organisation.

The AFP provides information, with your consent, to the employer or organisation but takes no part in any subsequent assessment.

Disputed Record Enquiries

If you believe the information provided on your police certificate is incorrect or inaccurate a Disputed Record form (CR 1200) is available from the AFP website. This form should be forwarded to the AFP through the agency or organisation with whom you have lodged your application for a National Police Check.

Include any additional information or documents supporting your enquiry to enable the AFP to more accurately assess your application. In some instances the AFP may require comparison fingerprints to resolve some disputes. Applicants will be notified in such instances.

The Privacy Commissioner is responsible for ensuring the protection of private information relating to individuals. This includes investigating instances where information has been released improperly or incorrectly. An individual who believes the standards dealing with disclosure and use of old conviction information have been breached may apply to the Privacy Commissioner for an investigation of the matter. The phone number is 1300 363 992.

The following requirements must be met when submitting an AFP National Police Check (NPC).
