SECRET SECULAR BUSINESS

Cardinal George Pell and Archbishop Mark Coleridge have identified a secularist conspiracy over the proposed sale of Calvary Hospital. We secular humanists can do with a confidence boost, given that government funding policies have helped make religious schools attract more than 40 per cent of ACT students. And then there's all the tax breaks for religious organisations. But it is reassuring to know I'm on the side of power and influence. I'm off to perfect my secret secularist handshake.
